

In this issue read about...

1. MLRC welcomes Minister O'Sullivan's Homelessness Policy Statement setting 2016 as the target for ending long-term homelessness and putting 'housing led' philosophy at the centre of policy, read more...
2. MLRC successfully assists a mother of two young children in a Local Authority tenancy succession case, read more...
3. MLRC provides an update on its submission on the Criminal Justice (Spent Convictions) Bill 2012, read more...
4. MLRC successfully acts for a claimant in an unfair dismissals case of a woman who was at risk of becoming homeless since becoming unemployed, read more...
5. MLRC assists a homeless mother of two young children negotiate with Local Authority regarding Housing Needs Assessment, read more...
6. MLRC assists a women who had to leave home due to domestic violence in resolving her Housing Needs issue with her Local Authority, read more...
7. MLRC welcomes two new personnel to their office at 25 Cork Street, read more...

Employment Opportunity

MLRC is now seeking to employ a Solicitor in Charge, who can provide the commitment, energy, drive and enthusiasm required for this highly challenging but rewarding role. The Closing Date for receipt of applications is Monday 14th April 2013. Click here for more details.

Workings of the MLRC

Mercy Law Resource Centre is an Independent Law Centre and registered charity providing free legal advice, representation and befriending services to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the areas of social housing and social welfare law. For more information about our work please see our website at www.mercylaw.ie.

Contact Us

Copyright © 2013 Mercy Law Resource Centre, All rights reserved.

Forward to a friend

You are receiving this email because you signed up to our Email.

Our mailing address is:

Mercy Law Resource Centre
25 Cork Street
Dublin, Dublin 8
Ireland

Add us to your address book

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences