

In this issue read about...

1. MLRC's 2012 Annual Report is now ready to read on our website, read more...
2. MLRC has signed up to The One Percent Difference Campaign, read more...
3. MLRC welcomes the increase of the Rent Supplement limit, read more...
4. MLRC gratefully acknowledges SSGT grant from, read more...
5. MLRC is concerned with the increase in the new figures on Rough Sleepers in Dublin city, read more...
6. MLRC assists with the housing needs of separated parents, read more...
7. MLRC extends best wishes to our former colleague and Solicitor in Charge, Rose Wall, in her new position, read more...
8. MLRC supports Threshold's call for a statutory code of conduct to support buy-to-let tenants, read more...
9. MLRC calls for clarity to prevent homelessness due to relationship breakdown or domestic violence, read more...
10. MLRC calls on Government to ring fence funding for homeless services, read more...

Fundraising Principles

MLRC is delighted to have completed the measures necessary to sign up to the ICTR's Guidelines of Fundraising Principles, including the 'Statement Standards in Fundraising Practice', 'Donor Charter', 'Complaints and Feedback Procedure' and 'Discloser'. For more information see Guiding Principles of Fundraising on our website.

Workings of the MLRC

Mercy Law Resource Centre is an Independent Law Centre and registered charity providing free legal advice, representation and befriending services to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the areas of social housing and social welfare law. For more information about our work please see our website at www.mercylaw.ie.

Contact Us

Copyright © 2013 Mercy Law Resource Centre, All rights reserved.

Forward to a friend

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences