

In this issue read about...

1. MLRC is currently recruiting new Volunteer Befrienders, read more...
2. MLRC welcomes the Dublin Region Homeless Executive's public awareness campaign for Rough Sleepers, read more...
3. MLRC successful outcome of a housing needs assessment, read more...
4. MLRC welcomes Maeve Regan as the new Solicitor-in-Charge, read more...
5. MLRC supports the call for child benefit for over 18s in second level education, read more...
6. MLRC supports Threshold's call for Deposit Protection Scheme, read more...
7. MLRC supports further reform to Rent Supplement, read more...
8. MLRC successful outcome of a housing issue, read more...
9. MLRC acknowledges €25,000 donation from Mason Hayes & Curran, read more...

10th October is World Homeless Day

Thursday 10th October is World Homeless Day. People around the world will mark World Homeless Day in many and varied ways and change the lives of homeless people in their local community. The purpose of World Homeless Day is to draw attention to homeless people's needs locally and provide opportunities for the community to get involved in responding to homelessness.

If you would like to support Mercy Law Resource Centre's work of providing free legal advice and representation to those who are homeless or at risk of becoming homeless, you can do so in many ways: You can give a donation to the Centre here or by raising awareness of MLRC's work through following us on Twitter and on Facebook. Thank you for your support which makes MLRC's work possible!

New Solicitor-in-Charge

MLRC is delighted to welcome Maeve Regan as the new Solicitor-in-Charge. Maeve is a solicitor, lecturer and author. Maeve trained with Arthur Cox and upon qualifying in 2005, specialised in employment and equality law, working with the Arthur Cox Employment Law Group. On secondment from Arthur Cox, Maeve worked with Herbert Smith, London and in the international legal department of Schering-Plough in New Jersey. Maeve's previous position was Legal Officer with the Public Interest Law Alliance (PILA), a project of FLAC and in 2011 she worked as a solicitor with Northside Community Law Centre, advising on employment and equality law and social welfare law. Maeve is a consultant to the Law Society's Diploma in Employment. Maeve is also the Editor and co-author of Employment Law (Bloomsbury Professional, 2009) which she co-authored with 22 leading employment, pension and tax lawyers.

Workings of MLRC

Mercy Law Resource Centre is an Independent Law Centre and registered charity providing free legal advice, representation and befriending services to people who are homeless or at risk of homelessness in the areas of social housing and social welfare law. For more information about our work please see our website at www.mercylaw.ie.

Ger Hynes, Maeve Regan
Sabrina Comerford, Shauna Curran, Caitriona O'Hara, Nuala Monaghan

Contact Us

Copyright © 2013 Mercy Law Resource Centre, All rights reserved.

Forward to a friend

unsubscribe from this list | update subscription preferences